

ESTA International Conference in Sweden 2011

Dear friends and colleagues,

As you may already know the 39th ESTA International Conference will take place in Sweden. Conference dates are set for June 1-5. The conference venue is Falun's Music Conservatoire, an upper secondary school with a conservatoire programme for students aiming for a professional career.

Falun is a historically important town in central Sweden, situated at the heart of a large mining district that for centuries was instrumental to Swedish export and industrial development.

Your individual participation is essential to the success of next year's conference. We are therefore kindly asking you to check out our conference website and, hopefully, to start making plans for coming to Falun in June 2011. We are also asking managing committees of sister branches to come forward with their programme proposals for the Falun Conference. This may be for a lecture, a concert or a workshop. Please forward programme proposal to estanews@esta.se

The main conference theme is Back to the future. This is reflecting the notion that professional conditions for the string teaching community has changed radically during the past 30 years. Our conference will therefore focus on how these challenges can be met with in the years to come. For more information please visit falun2011.com

With kind regards,

Gunnar Crantz,
